Each Sunday, Dr. Alejandro Hernandez-Valdez, Westmoreland's Director of Music, will lead a discussion of the key elements of music. This year's program:

Classical Music's Finest: Around the World in Eight Weeks

Travel the world with Alejandro as he takes you on a journey to explore masterpieces of classical music from America and England, Eastern Europe, France and Belgium, Germany, Italy, Latin America, Russia and its former republics, and Spain.

Religious Art Program

Seeing the Faith

Using a combination of familiar and unfamiliar works of art, this course will take a visual journey through the life of Christ. Along the way, we will discuss basic tools for reading and interpreting biblical art, look at different ways to "see" the story through the images, and how images can inform and sometimes misinform our faith.

The course will be taught by Amy Gray, an Ohio native, who received her B.F.A. in Illustration and Advertising from the Columbus College of Art and Design. She moved to Washington, DC to study the relationship between religion and the arts, and will complete her Masters Degree in Theological Studies at Wesley Seminary in 2011.

Journey with Jesus to Jerusalem
(With Luke As Tour Guide)

At a precise point in Luke (9:15), Jesus begins that fateful journey to Jerusalem that framed God's work of redemption for all time. This meandering itinerary offers some of the most memorable events, parables, miracles and lessons in Jesus' life. For our own 2010 "Summer on the Circle," this trek from Galilee to Jerusalem long ago offers key signposts for our own journeys. Through a variety of studies and energized worship, we can meet Jesus and ourselves "again for the first time."
